Justina Obi, FNP, PhD

InnovAge California PACE

“Every opportunity in life provides us with an opportunity to express our faith and purpose. My role at InnovAge is a way to purposefully step forward with love, kindness and respect to help seniors achieve better health.”

— Justina Obi

Justina earned a master’s degree in nursing, family nurse practitioner from the University of Phoenix. She also has a bachelor’s degree in law from the University of London and a PhD in International Law from Northwestern California University School of Law. Her clinical interests include health promotion, prevention, home health, hospice and palliative care.

Prior to joining InnovAge, she served as director of patient care services at Trinity Hospice Inc in California. Justina has additional work experience in geriatric care, home health, palliative care, hospice services and legal nurse consulting.

Justina is very involved in her community. Some of the organizations she works with include; Women of Grace Ministries, Living Faith Anglican Communion, Nigerian American Political Action Committee and All Nigerian Nationals in the Diaspora.

Her life experiences include a mix of many cultures. Justina left Nigeria as a teenager and moved to London to complete her general education and an undergraduate degree. She moved back to Nigeria and practiced corporate law for a couple of years. She then moved to Florida and later to California. She and her husband have two children. Justina’s faith is the cornerstone of her life. She also likes to read, cook and entertain others in her spare time.

Justina is an associate of Global Transitional Care Medical Group, a Care Partners Company, which provides California-licensed physicians and nurse practitioners to serve participants of InnovAge California PACE (ICAP).
